Attendance Please remember to report all absences by completing the online attendance form on your EYSO.org member page. To submit an attendance notification the day you will be late or missing, complete the online attendance form and call the EYSO Rehearsal Office at 847-214-7302.

Emergency Closings

Elgin Community College does not have regularly scheduled classes on Sundays, so standard emergency closing procedures do not apply to our rehearsals. Should it become necessary to cancel EYSO rehearsals due to weather or other unanticipated conditions, please check EYSO.org for closing information. Every attempt will be made to email the homes of all students prior to the start of their rehearsals, and information will be communicated via social media as well. The safety of our families and students, particularly those who drive themselves, is our primary concern. Please use good judgment regarding winter road conditions in your area.
