Guillermo Ulloa, oboe

2017-2018 EYSO Young Artists Concerto Competition Winner

Guillermo Ulloa joined the Elgin Youth Symphony Orchestra in August 2014. He is currently a junior at Dundee-Crown High School. He has been studying with Debra Freedland since he was 12 years old and has been coached by Lora Schaefer, John Dee, and Ricardo Castañeda. This is his second year in the Chamber Music Institute program and his first as part of the Earl Clemens Wind Quintet, an honors ensemble of the EYSO. In addition of winning the EYSO's concerto competition, he has received second place in the Rockford Youth Symphony Orchestra Concerto Competition. Guillermo plans to pursue a career in music performance. Guillermo would like to thank Mr. Swiggum, Mr. Sheppard, Ms. Goh, and Mr. Flaks for giving him an opportunity to a part of EYSO and be on stage. He would also like to thank his private teachers and all his school music teachers who are constantly guiding him and pushing him to do better. Most importantly he would like to thank Mr. Herath who was the first person to ever believe in him.

The Millar Brass Ensemble was founded in 1981 by a group of friends interested in playing and performing large brass ensemble music. A rehearsal space was provided for the musicians at Northwestern University's Alice Millar Chapel in return for performing at the Chapel's worship services. After a thirty-three year odyssey, the ensemble has developed into an established tradition with a nine month performing season and an international reputation for the finest in brass playing. The ensemble has toured extensively and has performed concerts at the Midwest Band and Orchestra Clinic, the International Trumpet Guild Conference, the International Trombone Workshop, the New York Brass Conference, the Texas Music Educators Convention, the University of Chicago and the Eastman School of Music. The group has seven compact discs to its credit on the Crystal, Koss and Delos International labels. The brass players that make up the ensemble are highly regarded as many of the top freelance musicians in Chicago. The individual members have performed with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the Lyric Opera of Chicago, the Grant Park Symphony, the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra and a host of other regional orchestras and chamber groups. Alumni of the Millar Brass Ensemble are performing as members of symphony orchestras around the country. While the ensemble tours and performs outside of Chicago, one of its primary functions is still to perform brass music as part of the liturgy at Alice Millar Chapel.
