Chamber Music Institute Concerts

April 30, 2017

12:45, 2:00, 3:15 & 4:30pm
ECC Spartan Auditorium

Dear Friends,

Our Artistic Director, Randal Swiggum, and our CMI Director, Theresa Goh, have told me for years that playing in a chamber group is the fastest way to develop as a musician.

They are absolutely right. Not only have I seen my own daughter improve dramatically after she joined the CMI, but I have seen the same kind of improvement in the students who play in our chamber groups over the years!

What a great way to learn to play, listen carefully to each other, and collaborate on musical interpretation. Today, we celebrate their accomplishments and growth as musicians in our concerts.

Please enjoy the concerts, and thank you for supporting our students at the EYSO. If you would like to explore more ways to help us, please visit the "Support EYSO" tab on our website (www.eyso.org).

Sincerely,
Joel Cohen

EYSO HONORS CHAMBER ENSEMBLES

For advanced high school and college age musicians, these high-level chamber groups are unique to the EYSO. Selected by competitive audition, they are offered on full scholarship, thanks to several generous patrons of the EYSO. Students selected for these groups have unparalleled coaching and performance opportunities, including school day tours throughout the Chicagoland area, and recent invitations by the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra and radio 98.7 WFMT's "Introductions" program.

STERLING BRASS QUINTET

Since 2007, the Sterling Brass Quintet has been wowing audiences with its signature sound. Coached by Matthew and Kari Lee of the acclaimed Millar Brass Ensemble, the quintet focuses on performance techniques unique to brass playing, and an eclectic mix of repertoire from the Renaissance to the 21st century. The quintet includes horn, trombone, tuba, and 2 trumpets. Its guest coaches are among the finest brass players in the world, and have included former CSO trumpeter Will Scarlett, Stephen Burns of Fulcrum Point, tuba virtuosi Rex Martin and Floyd Cooley, Gail Williams, Barbara Butler, and members of the Wisconsin Brass Quintet.

The SBQ is made possible by the generosity of EYSO patron Stu Ainsworth.

MAUD POWELL STRING QUARTET

Named for Maud Powell (1867-1920), America's first international violin superstar (who, we're proud to say, grew up in Aurora, Illinois), this premier string quartet is coached by Gina DiBello, violinist in the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Each year since the quartet was founded in 2007, students have worked with a star-studded list of guest artists and coaches which have included Midori, Rachel Barton Pine, Jaime Laredo, Isabella Lippi, Roland Vamos, Brant Taylor, members of the Pacifica Quartet and Peter Slowik. With an active rehearsal and performance schedule, the quartet has in recent years explored the quartets of Beethoven, Mozart, Brahms, Mendelssohn, Dvořák, Ravel, and Shostakovich, and newer works, as well as String Quartet No. 3 by renowned composer Daniel Břewbaker, written for and premiered by the MPSQ.

The MSPQ is offered tuition free each year through the generosity of EYSO patrons Ed and Joyce McFarland Dlugopolski.

HANSON STRING QUARTET

This second honors quartet for high-level string players was added to the EYSO Chamber Music Institute in 2010 and is named for the EYSO's founding conductor Robert Hanson. It is coached by Australian cellist Timothy Archbold, who has performed with orchestras and string quartets throughout the world. The HSQ is offered on full scholarship to its members, who are selected by competitive audition.

EARL CLEMENS WIND QUINTET

The Earl Clemens Wind Quintet is named after Earl L. Clemens, oboist and professor of music education at Northern Illinois University for 36 years. The quintet has worked with a star-studded list of guest coaches including Fritz Foss (Lyric Opera of Chicago), Jennifer Gunn (Chicago Symphony Orchestra), and Lewis Kirk (Santa Fe Opera and Lyric Opera of Chicago).

It is offered tuition free thanks to the generous sponsorship of Drs. Jeffrey and Leslie Hecht.
