Dear Friend,

Thank you for joining us at the first Chamber Music Institute Concerts of our 43rd season.

The success of our program is largely due to the generous donation of time by volunteers. Most of you had some involvement with the beginning of our season at Fall Camp. Many of you even volunteered there – directing traffic, serving food, staying the night as a chaperone. Thank you!

At a recent dinner honoring volunteer ushers here at the ECC Arts Center (yes, they seated you tonight), I was thinking about the role many of you play as volunteers in delivering the full, rich program of EYSO.

Parents volunteer throughout the year at rehearsal check in. One dad videotapes rehearsals and concerts for free. A mom repaired our collection of music stands. Parent volunteers help with the NOTES campaign. Our annual gala, Springboard, is already recruiting volunteers to this year's host committee.

We are also led by an all-volunteer board of directors who have played a constantly important, and ever-evolving role, in our growth. Our current board is a mix of individuals who have served from as little as a few months to over ten years.

Our board recently embarked on an aggressive initiative to grow its size and strength. We will be meeting and evaluating additional directors over the coming months for election to the board in the spring.

We couldn't do it without you! If you, or someone you know, are interested in volunteering for EYSO, please let us know.

Again, thanks for joining us today.
