EYSO’s programming helps students develop not only artistically and technically, but also to prepare them for a future of complex ideas, creative risk-taking, and leadership as global citizens. Every aspect of EYSO’s programming puts the student’s development first.

Rehearsals center on growing as players and collaborators, as well as developing into thoughtful communicators and leaders in their sections, ensembles, schools, and communities. Beyond rehearsals, EYSO’s year-round programming includes:

- A season-starting three-day Fall Camp at Riverwoods in St. Charles;
- Free outreach programs including pre-concert events for Elgin Symphony Orchestra, performances at Elgin Community College’s (ECC) graduation ceremonies, participation in many community and charitable events, and radio programs like WFMT-FM’s “Introductions” and Elgin’s WRMN-AM;
- Nine concerts at Elgin Community College Blizzard Theater providing performance opportunities for each of EYSO’s eight large ensembles;
- Two free chamber music concert days for EYSO’s members participating in its thriving Chamber Music Institute (this season, boasting 27 chamber ensembles);
- Our first week-long chamber music summer camp in 2019; and
- Coachings with world-class musicians from Millar Brass Ensemble, Chicago and Elgin symphony orchestras, Chicago Sinfonietta, and violinist Rachel Barton Pine.

This list of activities highlights only a fraction of EYSO’s programming. As much as EYSO has accomplished over 43 seasons there’s much, much more on the horizon. Art education and a thriving art and culture industry are paramount to the success and vibrancy of our communities.

THANK YOU FOR SUPPORTING EYSO!
