

RULES

1. Contestant must be a current member in good standing of the EYSO Youth Symphony or Philharmonia.
2. Contestant must audition on the instrument they currently play in the EYSO Youth Symphony or Philharmonia.
3. Contestant must be fully prepared to perform one movement from a concerto in the standard orchestral repertoire or a composition of similar stature with an orchestral accompaniment that is readily available and has been approved by the student's EYSO conductor by September 13, 2021.
4. The movement or work must not exceed fifteen minutes in length.
5. Winners of the competition in the previous season are not eligible to audition again this season. This includes the Philharmonia winner auditioning for the Youth Symphony competition.

AT THE AUDITION

6. All musicians (including accompanists) should plan to perform with the same PPE and social distancing required during regular EYSO rehearsals.
7. Auditions will be performed with piano accompaniment. Contestants must provide their own accompanists. It is in your best interest to find the best possible piano accompanist—someone who accompanies professionally and is familiar with orchestral repertoire and concerto competitions. Contestants with weak accompanists have little chance of competing successfully. Although the accompanist is not judged as part of your audition, it is virtually impossible to award a winner whose accompanist has not been a musical asset to the performance. Instruct your accompanist to cut all orchestral introductions and interludes to only a few measures. A list of recommended accompanists is available here.
8. Contestants must furnish three copies of the solo part of their composition for the judges' use. These may be photocopied and measure numbers are not required.
9. Auditions are closed to the public and to friends or family members.
10. Enter the audition room warmed up and ready to perform.
11. First impressions are important to the judges. This includes appearance and dress.
12. Memorization is not required, but is strongly recommended.
13. Judges are professional musicians and conductors engaged by the EYSO for this event who do not have students in the competition. EYSO staff and conductors do not adjudicate.

WINNER(S)

14. Judges may elect to choose a single winner, several winners, or no winner. Their decision is final.
15. The Youth Symphony winner(s) of this competition will perform with the EYSO Youth Symphony on one of their 7:00pm concerts during the 2021-22 season. The Philharmonia winner(s) will perform with the EYSO Philharmonia on one of their 4:30pm concerts during the 2021-22 season.
