

SPONSORSHIP PROGRAM

Founded in 1976, Elgin Youth Symphony Orchestras attracts a national reputation for inspiring student curiosity, imagination, critical thinking, and collaboration.

Elgin Youth Symphony Orchestras (EYSO) creates a community of young musicians, enriching their lives and the lives of their families, schools, communities, and beyond, through the study and performance of excellent music. EYSO does this by engaging students intellectually as well as musically; encouraging critical-thinking skills that benefit future pursuits; and inspiring students to become “expert noticers,” skilled in observing details and how they contribute to the whole. EYSO’s meticulous nurturing of musical and personal growth encourages students to become well-rounded, thoughtful communicators, and leaders in their ensembles, schools, and communities. Thousands of EYSO alumni hold successful careers as professional musicians, educators, and as leaders in their chosen field.
